Nth Power Team

Proven Leadership and Experience.

Nancy C. Floyd

Co-Founder and Managing Director, Nth Power

Nancy is Co-Founder and Managing Director of Nth Power. She founded the firm in 1993 with Maurice Gunderson.

Ms. Floyd has led Nth Power's investments in Silicon Energy (Nasdaq: ITRI), Northern Power (Nasdaq: DESC), Smartsynch and Serveron. In addition to these Boards, Ms. Floyd has been an adviser to the National Renewable Energy Lab, Environmental Capital Network, and was, recently, a board member of Sustainable Asset Management in Zurich, Switzerland.

Prior to founding Nth Power, Ms. Floyd built, managed and negotiated the sale of two high-growth energy and telecommunications companies. In the energy arena, she founded NFC Energy Corporation, an early independent power company utilizing advanced technology developed by NASA and Sandia Labs. She developed over $30 million in projects and sold the company, generating a 25-fold return on the original capital invested in three years. In 1984, she helped found PacTel Spectrum Services, a network management company for private voice and data networks and a subsidiary of Pacific Telesis. Ms. Floyd was responsible for the nationwide launch of Spectrum Services, which was ultimately sold to IBM in 1987.

In 1977-1980, Ms. Floyd worked for the Chairman of the Vermont Public Utilities Commission where she worked on energy and telecommunications issues as well as served as the Commission's chief legislative liaison. She sat on the New England Regional Facility Siting Council and founded one of the first non-profit companies in the U.S. to fund home energy audits.

Ms. Floyd holds a masters degree in political science from Rutgers University (1977), where she was an Eagleton Fellow. She received a bachelor's degree in political science from Franklin and Marshall College (1976), where she currently serves as a Trustee.
