Nth Power Team

Proven Leadership and Experience.

Bryant J. Tong

Managing Director, Nth Power

Bryant Tong joined Nth Power in 2001 as a Managing Director.

Mr. Tong has led Nth Power's investments in Accenergy, Maximum Performance Group, and Envenergy, Inc. and he serves on the board of each of these companies. Mr. Tong also led Nth Power's investment in Nanogram Devices

Corporation and later sold the company to Wilson Greatbatch in March 2004 for $48 million.

Previously, Mr Tong was founder, President and CEO of Pacific Venture Capital, LLC (PVC), the venture capital arm of the PG&E Corporation. At PVC, Mr. Tong led investments in the energy and telecommunications sectors.

Prior to joining PVC, Mr. Tong co-founded ReSourcePhoenix, Inc., a public company that pioneered the use of the Internet to help businesses outsource their IT and accounting operations. As President and COO, he planned business strategy, sales and marketing and was responsible for all day to day operations.

Previous to ReSourcePhoenix, Mr. Tong also served as part of the senior management group at Phoenix American, Inc. While at Phoenix American, Mr. Tong worked with Phoenix Growth Capital (PGC). PGC invested in over 200 venture capital-backed companies by providing venture lease financing. PGC was one of the most profitable divisions within Phoenix American.

Mr. Tong served for four years as a senior member of the audit staff of Ernst and Young. He was responsible for the preparation of interim and year-end audits, SEC reporting requirements and internal control reviews. Clients included venture capital firms and large financial institutions.

A native of San Francisco, California, Mr. Tong earned a Bachelor of Science degree in accounting from the University of California at Berkeley. Mr. Tong also is a member of the California Society of Certified Public Accountants and the American Institute of CPAs.
