Nth Power Team

Proven Leadership and Experience.

Maurice E. P. Gunderson

Co-Founder and Managing Director, Nth Power

Maurice Gunderson is Co-founder and Managing Director of Nth Power, a successful venture capital firm with a focus on investments emerging from the global restructuring of the energy industry. He founded the firm in 1993 with Nancy Floyd.

Mr. Gunderson has led several investments for Nth Power since its founding. Today, he is a member of the boards of NanoGram Corporation, Metallic Power Inc., STM Power Inc., Clean Air Power Inc., CellTech Power, Inc and Pentadyne.

Prior to founding Nth Power, Mr. Gunderson spent over 20 years developing profitable products and launched five successful companies. He is a specialist in thermodynamics and energy technologies and has been instrumental in the development of cryogenic equipment, energy systems, turbomachinery, and computer-based control systems for process plants and pipeline systems. Mr. Gunderson is a patent holder and a Registered Professional Engineer.

Mr. Gunderson holds an MBA from the Stanford University Graduate School of Business (1985), a Master of Science degree in Mechanical Engineering (thermodynamics) and a Bachelor of Arts degree in Mechanical Engineering, both from Oregon State University (1974, 1975). He was named a 1984-85 NASA Technology Fellow.
