Proven Leadership and Experience.

Rodrigo Prudencio

Principal, Nth Power

Rodrigo Prudencio is a Principal with Nth Power. Rodrigo works with the portfolio companies and Limited Partners to lead strategic relationships that advance early adoption of energy technologies and services. The strategic relations program he leads is responsible for over $100 million of contracts and investments between Nth Power's Limited Partners and portfolio companies.

Before coming to Nth Power, Rodrigo worked briefly for Utility.com where he led the raising of over $20 million in private investment and assisted senior executives in strategic planning, partnerships, and other business decisions.

Earlier in his career, Rodrigo worked for the Department of State where he worked on a variety of global environmental negotiations, including preparations for the Kyoto round of the Climate Change Convention. As part of the State Department's climate change team, he coordinated interagency efforts and managed delegation communications with the White House and other key federal agencies.

Rodrigo was also Director of the international trade program at the National Wildlife Federation, the largest membership supported U.S. based conservation organization. Rodrigo led NWF's environmental advocacy to reform the rules of international trade. Rodrigo managed all aspects of that program including foundation support, government relations, public advocacy and coalition building. Rodrigo was a founder of the Consumer's Choice Council, and advocacy coalition focused on promoting eco-labeling initiatives.

Mr. Prudencio received his MBA from the Haas School of Business, UC Berkeley where he served as president of his class and concentrated on energy markets including outside research at Lawrence Berkeley Laboratory. His bachelor's degree in international relations was earned from Middlebury College in Vermont.
